A BRUSSELS message says that Mr. Robert Smille and Mr. Thomas Aston, delegates of the Miners' Federation of Great Britain, have made a gift of 250,000 francs in the name of their organization to the organization of Belgian miners.

The Merchant Shipbuilding company, at Harriman, Pa., has completed and opened a $500,000 hotel for the accommodation of its employees. The new hostelry is said to be the finest connected with any industrial plant in the world.

The Missouri State Federation of Labor is attempting to have passed a straight eight-hour law for women employed in all phases of work other than domestic service. The state now has a nine-hour law applicable to all work other than housework and telephone exchanges. It appears certain that the bill if passed will carry many amendments.

WHY

Ostrich Owners Are Con- gratulating Themselves

The fact that their feathers are to be worn on milady's hat this winter has just saved 800 birds from extinction, according to the San Francisco Chronicle.

When the war broke out it hit the ostrich plume industry, and hit hard. Ostrich plumes were a drug on the market, and thousands of fine birds owned by Arizona ostrich growers were sold for almost nothing.

Most of them were bought by other concerns at what seemed to them at the time bargain prices. But the plume market failed to revive, and what ostriches remained were eating their heads off. The California ostrich men were not buying any more birds. They had more than they knew what to do with. Then it was that somebody suggested eating them.

Last spring Phoenix owners decided that they could no longer keep the birds. The matter of marketing the ostriches as meat was taken up with T. A. Riordan, food administrator for Arizona, and he gave his consent. A committee had the task in charge, and soon had all arrangements completed. The ostriches were to be slaughtered at the ranch and rushed to the city, where they would be placed in cold storage prior to selling. The wholesale dealer was all ready. The shops that were to handle ostrich meat at retail had been announced.

Then the good news came.

DUE TO THEIR MILK DIET

Why Yanks Are Noted for Their Physical and Moral Courage is Explained by Dairyman.

American soldiers have displayed such wonderful physical and moral courage at the front because they are from a dairy nation and are milked, is the conviction of M. D. Munn of St. Paul, president of the National Dairy council.

Speaking at the dairy show held in Columbus, O., the other day, Mr. Munn said, "At one time the dairy show very erroneously compared the food value of milk and meat as being equal. Milk has just as much nutritive value as other foods, but more than that, it contains something other foods do not contain. A quart of milk supplies the essential elements of child growth which no other food contains."

He continued, saying, last year this country produced approximately 90 billion pounds, equal to 45 billion quarts of milk, and yet taking from this the amount used in condensed milk, butter, cheese and ice cream there is left only about a glass of milk a day for every person in the United States. Milk made up 19 per cent of the American diet last year.

Why Centennial is Remembered.

Although it is more than two score years since the great American centennial turned the eyes of a world in the direction of Philadelphia, Memorial hall, one of the three centennial buildings which were not removed from Fairmount park after the close of the exhibition, is visited daily by many persons. Among the attractions in Memorial hall are the Wolstach gallery, containing some of the finest specimens of American and European art, and some marvelous reproductions of the pictures of the Italian masters; the Bloomfield-Moore collection of our own colonial and of rococo curios; some postage stamps of the early days of the United States of America; an exhibition of Japanese lances and medieval armor; a reproduction of some of the Vatican statuary; a full-rigged ship which a prisoner of the eastern penitentiary made from pieces of bone served in his soup; a miniature of the entire centennial, and finally there is the peering glass exhibition of the "Last Days of Pompeii."

How October Was Named.

October, during which the sun enters Scorpio, the eighth sign of the zodiac, and which derives its name from the Latin word "octo," meaning "eight," was, of course, once the eighth month of the Roman year, which began with March. In our present, the Julian calendar, October became the tenth month, but the old name has always stuck. It is commonly said that the selection of a deadly insect to represent October was because the killing frosts of October are as fatal to summer's flowers as the sting of the scorpion is to living creatures.

But the true reason for the choosing of this sign is to be found in the fanciful astronomy of olden days, which saw the shape of the scorpion in a starry constellation, distinguishing that particular "house" or quarter of the heavens through which the sun passes in this lunar month.

Why Army Likes Motor Kitchens.

Feeding soldiers is an important matter, and the problems it presents have interested many of our inventors.

The traveling kitchen, run by motor power, is a very natural product of the times. There are several types. The kitchen, with its big kettles, large enough to cook food for 250 men at one operation, is mounted upon an automobile truck, which can also carry reserve supplies to feed 250 additional men.

For the chauffeur a protected cab is provided in front and the cook may attend to his work in the kitchen even while the truck is moving from place to place, by standing upon a step in the rear. To prevent his being jolted off on rough roads a hand rail has been provided to which he can hold.

BANDIT SLAIN; EIGHT TAKEN

Chicago Police Surround Saloon at Night and Capture Suspects After Long Siege.

Chicago, April 9.—Eight men, several of them said to have long police records, are under arrest at the stockyards station following a successful siege early in the morning of George Newton's saloon at 4259 South Halsted street. The saloon was surrounded for an hour by a detachment of police, who fired repeated volleys into the building. No shots were fired in return. After two or three failures to sneak from the building two of the beleaguered men opened a side door and surrendered. A few hours later Cicero police, in a revolver battle with two men whom they found prowling about the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad yards, killed one.

Search of the Newton saloon disclosed property worth between $1,500 and $2,000, which the police believe to have been stolen.

Four colored bandits entered the store of the Mutual Produce company, 922 Fulton street, and obtained more than $3,000 from the cash drawer.

PROBES INDIANA OIL FIGHT

United States Federal Trade Commission Investigates Charges Against Standard Company.

Chicago, April 9.—Investigation of charges that the Standard Oil Company of Indiana has conspired to suppress competition in that state was started by the federal trade commission before Examiner Ray Beebe. The specific accusation is that the company has been selling its products at wholesale direct to consumers in territory where jobbers do not handle Standard products. The basis for the charges developed while the government was supervising the oil industry in 1918. It is expected that four weeks will be needed to take testimony.

MINNEAPOLIS BANK IS ROBBED

Six Bandits Take $4,500 In Cash and $13,000 In Bonds From Peoples' State.

Minneapolis, April 9.—Six bandits held up the Peoples' State bank at Seven Corners, a busy Minneapolis business district, shortly before 10 o'clock this forenoon and escaped with $4,500 cash and $13,000 in Liberty bonds. Cashier A. E. Kolsted was locked in the vault. As the bandits ran from the bank to their automobile the handle of their satchel broke and considerable cash fell on the sidewalk. The men did not stop to recover it. J. P. Ernster, president of the bank, stepped from a street car near the building just as the bandits were departing. He had $5,000 which he had obtained from another bank. Ernster suspected a robbery and notified the police from a drug store.
